

▶ NOTE: Church Center will be closed Fridays during the month of August.

▶ Lamar & Janice Stoltzfus return to Kenya this month, to begin working at Rift Valley Academy after an unplanned two year hiatus. They were only going to be in the USA from August 2016 – August 2017, but Janice's diagnosis of breast cancer in December of 2016 changed all their plans. Praise God that after months of surgery and chemotherapy, all Janice's test results have come back clean and she has been given the green light to return. However, she will not return to the full-time, stressful job she had before coming home this last time. RVA has agreed to let her ease her way back to the active and often hectic pace at the school, so that she will not be overwhelmed. Lamar will return to his position of Director of Services, which means he oversees 10 departments and a staff of 88. Please keep Lamar & Janice in prayer as they also go back as empty nesters this time, another change to work through.

▶ Robert & Bettina Schaeffer were able to spend some vacation time in Germany in June, visiting with some of Bettina's family. Robert returned, but Bettina continued on to Italy to visit the other side of her family. She returned in mid-July.

▶ Jim & Janet Stahl will be in Dayton, OH for the first week of this month for a Bible Story Telling Conference. The Stahls train national speakers how to tell Bible stories accurately to their own people who don't yet have the scriptures in their own language and/or may be illiterate.

▶ Dave Hershey is once again looking for folks who will put together goody boxes for his ministry, Christian Student Fellowship, to distribute to students at Penn State-Berks campus. There is a specific list of items that are to be used, so please contact Dave at campusminister_dave@yahoo.com to get details. He needs the items by mid-August. If you need more information, contact Dave at (610) 763-2445.

▶ Joe Toy would also like to remind folks to collect school supplies and/or knapsacks for the back to school distribution that OAM does in mid-August. For more information on what supplies are needed and where to drop them off, you can go to Joe's website, www.oamphilly.org or call him at (610)324-1671. He needs all supplies and knapsacks by mid-August at the latest!

▶ A number of our MK's (Missionary Kids) will be traveling back to their boarding schools or starting college this month, often in another country than the one in which they were raised. Please keep them in prayer as the home sickness hits, that they may find good Christian friends and teachers/counselors to guide them.

▶ Ron & Brenda Anderson will return to Spain at the end of this month after a couple of months in the USA for conferences, deputation and family visits. Please keep Brenda in prayer as she has been suffering with asthma and bronchitis since she arrived in the States. NOTE: The Andersons had coffee mugs with their names printed on them at National Conference. We still have three of them in the GMC office. For a donation of $5, you can have one. (Monies go to Andersons.) So for $5 you can have coffee with the Andersons each morning as you pray for them. What a great prayer reminder!

Cassie Wells

Cassandra Wells, known as Cassie, is our newest E.C. missionary. She was commissioned in her home church of Trinity Lighthouse in Royersford this last March. Cassie is serving with Disciple Makers, a campus ministry agency, at Kutztown University.

Campus ministry involves a lot of things, but mostly building relationships. Students want to know that someone cares about them before they will listen to or trust them. To do this, Cassie hangs out at the Student Union building or does surveys around campus as a way to interact with students and learn their thoughts and values on various subjects.

There is really no such thing as a 'typical' week, but often her Monday through Friday involves leading several bible studies, discipleship of students who attend bible studies, dinner with students to build relationships, discipleship from her boss and mentor, and of course, administrative work. (You know what they say; the job isn't finished until the paper work is done!)

Recently Cassie has added another campus to her schedule, that of Cedar Crest College in Allentown, a private liberal arts college. In addition, she has started boxing as a form of regular discipline and exercise. As a result, Cassie shares that she and her coworkers who also box have started a bible study with some of the women at the gym where they work out! God certainly opens doors in some unusual places!

Cassie is currently living in the Alburtis, PA area. Since a four footed companion wasn't practical due to her schedule, she is sharing her apartment with a cockatiel.

Starting this fall Cassie will be heading up "hospitality" at Kutztown; this means she'll be working with students and casting a vision to help people feel welcomed into the fellowship and see Jesus in the community. Cassie will also be leading a bible study with a student, with the purpose of giving her one-on-one training in leading a bible study so they can do outreach on campus and invite other students to read the Scriptures.
