

REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE because of Him!

You are God's child (John 1:12)

You are God's friend (John 15:15)

You can never be separated from

His love (Rom. 8:35-39)

You have access to God through the

Holy Spirit (Eph. 2:18)

You are God's co-worker (1 Cor. 3:9)

Thank God for His love and faithfulness to you! Celebrate Him!

REMEMBER HIS PROMISES! Someone took the time to research and found over 8,000 promises in the Bible. He promises to forgive, to transform, to guide, to never leave you, to give you strength and peace, to supply your needs, and on and on. In 2 Cor. 1:20 we are told "...no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ..." God always delivers what He promises! Celebrate Him!

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

May 5, 2011

60th Annual Observance

Theme: "A Mighty Fortress is our God" (Psalm 91:2)

Personal & National Prayer Requests:

1. Seek God's help in these trying times, repent, and express a humble reliance on Him (Ps. 51)
2. Restoration of the family unit, the basic structure of our society (Eph. 5)
3. Humility in our relationships issuing in respect, love, and care for one another (1 John 4)
4. Wisdom and integrity for our elected and appointed leaders in authority over us (1 Tim. 2)
5. Courage and wisdom to confront threats to the moral fabric of our nation (Col. 2)

"it is the duty of nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord..." Abraham Lincoln

HeartCry

May-June 2011

It's Celebration Time!

Did you celebrate today? No, I'm not talking about a birthday, an anniversary, a graduation, a problem solved... I'm talking about celebrating God! An old Scottish preacher once said we should "think magnificently of God." He deserves that! To celebrate means "to honor or praise publicly."

What gives us our motivation to praise? Is it not what we read in God's Word? Before we can "go public" we need to privately soak in what the Bible says about God, about us, and about His promises.

REMEMBER WHO HE IS! As you read His Word, look for His names... Creator, Redeemer/Savior, Shepherd, Father, Comforter, Teacher, King of Kings, and much more. His is faithful, loving unchangeable, longsuffering, merciful. He is your strength, your fortress, your shield, your light. Celebrate Him!

PRAYER GUIDE FOR THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Rev. Jeffrey G. Byerly

Rev. Bruce D. Hill

Rev. Ramon E. Mendez

Rev. Kenneth H. Miller

Pray that:

Our election process for our next Bishop will select the man that the Lord has called and chose to be our leader.

He will devote himself to prayer and personal spiritual formation.

The Lord will give him spiritual discernment and wisdom in all of his decisions and actions.

In humility he would seek and submit to the will of God in all of his actions and decisions.

The Lord would protect him and his family from any and all physical or spiritual harm.

The Lord would help him to relate to all the different people and churches with their own unique problems and concerns.

The Lord would help him to be an effective team builder and team player.

The Lord would help him to gain the trust of the people both in our congregations and in the community at large.

The Lord would strengthen his administrative, management, and communication skills as he grows into his new position of authority.
