

▶ An Appreciation/Retirement luncheon will be held on Saturday, March 23rd for John & Carolyn Miller, and Jim & Joan Farr. The Millers retired a few years ago but have continued to serve SIL as they are able, and the Farris are officially retiring in June after decades of serving as translators in Papua New Guinea. The luncheon will be held at the Commons of Evangelical Seminary in Myerstown, PA. The cost is $10 per person. Everyone is invited to attend, but reservations are required. The deadline for reservations is Friday, March 8th. Contact the Global Ministries office for more information. Phone 717-866-7584 or email to ecglobal@eccenter.com.

▶ The Delaware Region Missions Brunch will be held Thursday, March 28th. Hope Community Church in Fogelsville, PA once again has agreed to host this event. This brunch is open to anyone who is interested in hearing about what's going on in EC missions and updates from EC missionaries. Rev. Ted Rathman, our GM Associate, will be sharing his vision for GMC in the coming years. No fee will be charged, but reservations are necessary so we can have a head count. Please contact the GMC office by email (ecgloba@eccenter.com) or call 1-717-866-7584. The deadline for reservations is Friday, March 15th.

▶ Jonathan & Kathy Wilson will have to wait to find out the details about their latest grandchild. The Wilsons left in mid-January for several months in their village, and daughter Sarah and her husband were still waiting for their second child to arrive. The Wilsons don't have internet access while in the village, so guess it will be a surprise until they return in mid-March.

▶ Several of our missionaries have had to have surgery recently. Both Jim Farr and Brenda Anderson had cataract surgery, and Val Schubert had to have a non-cancerous uterine tumor removed. All are doing well, but this is a reminder of how much our missionaries rely on your prayers for them and their health.

▶ Ivy Limbert is currently doing a Master's of Science in Education through online classes while working at Black Forest Academy as an ESL teacher. She would appreciate prayers to be able to balance all her responsibilities as well as keeping in good health.

▶ A number of our missionaries are struggling with low support levels. If you would be able to help, either with increased monthly support or even a one-time gift to help their bottom line, please contact Pat at the GMC office. Phone number is 1-800-866-7584, email is ecglobal@eccenter.com.

▶ BJ Whitaker gives praise for a good response to several events done with the Catholic Church in late January. The local Catholic radio station did an interview with him, and he was invited by the local parish in Alcora to lead a more Evangelical style worship service in their church, with BJ's church leading the music and BJ preaching. There were 40-50 people in attendance. What a wonderful opportunity to both work with the local Catholic church, and to reach people who might not have heard the Good News about Jesus Christ.

▶ Continue to keep retired EC missionary Janet Baker in prayer. Her doctor spoke against the back surgery she had been scheduled to have, so now she will need to weigh options for treatments to alleviate the pain.

Spring Cleaning

March is the month when most of us in the Northeast are starting to get anxious for spring. We are tired of the snow and cold, and hoping to see something green coming up through the mounds of white stuff out in our yards.

If you have PA Dutch roots, this may also be the time of year when you start thinking of 'retting up', or giving your house a thorough cleaning. I don't know if this is still a custom with many families, but I remember that when I was growing up, that my siblings and I were expected to help with the spring cleaning. We wiped down walls, washed windows inside and out, moved the furniture, thoroughly vacuumed all the carpeted areas, shook out area rugs, and wet mopped the linoleum floors. We took apart light fixtures and cleaned out the globes, and dusted everything that didn't move. (The family dogs went into hiding, or I think my mother would have vacuumed them too.) It was usually a Saturday and it was a very long day. But the results were amazing. Of course, they didn't last; dust and dirt have a habit of sneaking back in, no matter how hard you try to keep them out. So we did it all again in the fall.

Perhaps we need to do a spiritual 'retting up' at times as well. It's easy to get so busy that we neglect our devotional time. Perhaps our minds gets cluttered with anger towards someone or anxiety about a situation at work or at home. We harbor grudges the way dust builds up in corners if we don't pay attention to it. We worry about finances, children, grandchildren, the world around us. It's easy to get distracted and not realize how cluttered our souls are becoming with cobwebs of doubt and despair or the dirt of resentment and hard feelings.

The author of Hebrews talks about the importance of 'cleaning up' our hearts and souls, so that God can use us for the work He created us to do. No one is attracted to a dirty building; in the same way no one will want to listen to us talk about Jesus if we don't act differently than our old cruddy selves. Only God can wash away our sins, but we need to persevere to keep ourselves connected to Him and spiritually clean so we can serve Him well.

"...let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. HEBREWS 10: 22-24
