

SPRING SHORT STOPS- PART B

Honduras – A team of nine went to Honduras in early March to help Ed and Val Schubert with several building projects. The men and women mixed and poured cement floors at a daycare, a porch for another missionary family, and an addition at a school. Team members were: Rev. Josh and Rachel Reinders from Seneca, PA; Rev. Chris Lewis from Bethany Crossroads E.C. in Emlenton, PA; Mike Reinders, Allen Hansen, Photo

The Global Ministries Commission is again sponsoring two work teams to Camp LIWA in Fairbanks, AK this summer. Team one includes folks from Grace EC in Knox, PA; Ebenezer EC in Brownstown, St. John's EC Steelstown(Annville); Trinity EC, Terre Hill, and Mohn's Hill EC, Reading PA.

Team two has members from New Horizon church in Allentown, PA; Zion EC Bridgeville; St. Matthew's EC in Emmaus PA; and Riverhill EC Church in Shippenville, PA.

Mohns Hill Church - Bill Wingenroth and Bob Pawling accompanied Pastor Tom Fry And Pastor Adamino Ortiz of Provisions Bible Ministries of Norristown, Pa on a Cuba Mission trip March 5th- 17th. They held Bible teaching conferences for pastors and church leaders in 2 locations in Cuba. Bill also helped the churches set up loan committees to help start small businesses for church members. Team members also visited farms and farming projects in the two areas to consult, advise and follow up on previous projects the ministry has been involved with.

The first week was spent in Artemisa about an hour west of Havana and the second week was spent in Central and eastern Cuba near the town of Bayamo. Bob Pawling helped teach the pastors and leaders and also was our musical addition to the conference. The team had the opportunity to teach to over 230 pastors and church leaders, and left each one of them a complete study guide for 1st ,2nd & ,3rd John that we had printed in Spanish for them.
